Students of the Week*Prep/1

Good morning, I hope everyone is ready for the coming holidays. Well done to our award winners this week Noah Hartley for leading his writing group and being a very supporting of others. Lutarnna Nicholas for taking on feedback to help extend her writing.

Last Week's Fun!

"Learning Together, Succeeding Together"

This week we are looking at:

Reading:

- We are building a range of reading strategies, such as getting our mouth ready, and checking the beginning and end of a word. Grade ones are chunking unknown words into parts that they know, to help make accurate predictions.
- We are focusing on recognising the letters g & h and matching them to their sounds.
- Grade ones are looking at bossy e and how we use it in our spelling and reading.

Writing:

- Segmenting CVC words— this is when you break apart the sounds you hear in short three sound word and write the sounds you hear.
- Blending CVC words – this is when you hear individual sounds and put them together to make a word.
- We are planning and writing our own stories in the writing style of Pat Hutchins.

Maths: Number

Preps – are looking at friends of ten as well as numbers that come before and after.

Grade ones - are looking at place value and how well tens and ones work to help in the largest and smallest numbers and where we place them on a 100 chart.

Have a fantastic week,
Miss Cock

1/2

Hello and welcome to week 8. Awards this week went to Zayn Smith, Casey Bills and Harper Robertson. Zayn for his engagement in class discussions, particularly in maths where he has been working hard to share his thinking and strategies. Casey for his readiness to learn all of the time and making connections between his learning. Harper for showing our school value of readiness to learn by taking initiative with her learning and asking questions when something doesn't make sense. Keep it up!

This week in reading we are continuing to look at visualising and how we can use our senses to help us 'make a movie in our head' whilst we read.

In Writing, we will continue to look closely at the words used in Big Rain Coming to help us sequence our own story where the characters are anticipating something exciting happening.

In Maths, we are working on our place value skills through the use of number lines to help us to understand the relative size of different numbers.

Finally, thank you to all the parents who took the time out of their week to have a parent teacher conversation with me last week. If you didn't get the chance to come in, feel free to contact me to make a time to have a chat!

Thanks and have a great week!
Eliza Cunningham, Brenda Power, Tasha and Lisa

3/4

This week's SOTW Awards were presented to:

3/4A: Edison Stapleton - for his excellent handwriting, taking great care with the correct formation of all his letters.

Jake Hartley - For his growing confidence and great improvement in maths fluency activities. Well done Jake.

"Learning Together, Succeeding Together"

Chloe Jackson - for "Bouncing Back" last week when things were tough. It was great to see the way she regrouped and got herself back on track. A great effort.

3/4B: Ivy Mallen – wonderful reading thinking and contributions during our reading of The Buggalugs Bum Thief and with Mrs Mackie during Grade 3 Naplan.

Bella Pool, Charlotte Butcher and Samantha Humphrey – for the resilience shown during NAPLAN and their relaxed approach to the computer technicalities and issues.

This week we are exploring:

- connections to our self, other texts and the world as we read The Buggalugs Bum Thief as a class and during our independent reading;
- how authors use verbs to describe settings and language choices used to move from a close view to a wider view
- numbers lines and how to use known information to map new numbers;
- properties of odd and even numbers;
- the change in properties when different examples of matter are cooled.

Please keep sharing reading at home – ask your children if they have made any connections to what they have been reading at school or home. Remember, connections help children remember key information from what they are reading.

Have a great week.

Mrs Mackie, Mrs Murray and Alyssa 😊

5/6

Hello Grade 5/6 Families

Well done to Ray Wang for competing in the Regional Swimming Carnival in Sale last week and well done to all the grade 5s who have now completed all of their Naplan tests. If your child has been away, they will be able to catch up on missed tests this week.

Students of the week are:

William Kellock: For a big improvement in the amount and quality of his writing.

Flynn Whelan: For a great effort during literature circle activities and writing thoughtful reader's responses.

Gabby Reggardo: For exhibiting our school values in everything she does.

We are continuing to focus on writing summaries and vocabulary extension during reading sessions. For writing students will be learning how to write up an experiment.

Last week in science the students were asked to design an experiment to test the viscosity of various liquids.

This week in maths we will look at multiplying and dividing by 10's and also patterns in number.

If you would like to help with your child's learning at home, reading for 10 to 15 minutes each night can help as can learning their tables.

Thankyou

Ms Smith, Mr McPhee, Bree, Janet and Hannah

Art

This week has been dominated by urban planning and city structures. Students from all classes have explored cities from around the world using such things as Google Earth to go on a "virtual tour" of the world!

"Learning Together, Succeeding Together"

Artist of the Week, Zoe Nairn.

Jobi Laybourne.

SPORT AND PE NEWS

Students of the Week: Ryder Hollis-(this if for 2 weeks ago) Ryder you have been such a great role model in PE in Grade 1/2, 100% all in with your participation, well done!

"Learning Together, Succeeding Together"

Regional Swimming Carnival: Sale

Congratulations to Ray who represented the school in the Regional Swimming Carnival in Sale last Thursday. It can be such an overwhelming experience heading down to compete at this level against Gippsland schools from Pakenham to the border. Ray's growth mindset and "have a go" attitude is admirable, that's the TAPS way. So impressive to see you bring home first medals in the Multiclass Backstroke (1:22 s) and Breaststroke (1:15s). Amazing Ray, you should be so proud of yourself!

TAPS Run Club (TRC)

Due to popular demand, we will again be running the TAPS Run Club at school every Tuesday and Thursday at lunchtime, weather permitting. This is a voluntary activity for students to challenge themselves by running, jogging, walking or any combinations of these, around a circuit on the soccer and footy ovals for 15 minutes. Students will accumulate laps and awards given as students pass the levels of laps around the circuit. We will be tallying up laps and this will be a nice lead up to the TAPS cross country early next term.

Thanks,

Barb (SPORT PE COORDINATOR)

Bonjour,

Last week, students in grades 5-6 had another go at understanding French recipes while making crêpes. Some were happy to have a go at using the pan to cook them, while others preferred to watch.

Matilda, in Prep, received an award at assembly on Monday for her beautiful listening and impressive counting in French. Well done!

This week, there will be no French lessons, as I will be required on other duties outside of school. If your child is taking part in the French poetry competition, keep encouraging them to practise by listening to their poem and repeating after each sentence. Here is the link to the audio files:
